

Tela is charming port city between San Pedro Sula and La Ceiba.

It boasts of the third most important tropical botanical garden of the Western Hemisphere, also of lovely white sandy beaches Garifuna Culture and natural areas and National Parks.

We offer the following services in Tela:

- Transfers
- Reservations and booking in the best hotels such as Villas Telamar, La Ensenada (all inclusive), Maya Vista and other inexpensive options for large and student groups fitting taste and budget.

Featuring: Getting to know Tela Package $45

* 7:00 am We leave out of La Ceiba and travel 100 kms by land towards Lancetilla Botanical Garden founded in 1926 as an experimental garden and in this present time it is considered by its size, diverse flora and fauna as the third largest in this hemisphere it hosts various endemic species a simple must for bird watchers and botanist fans. Here we do a guided tour with a local guide that interprets the main trail for us.

*At 11:30 am After Lancetilla we continue our journey into Tela and view the city from its highest observation deck where we can have lunch that by the way it is as great as the view.

*In the evening we go around the city and then visit the Garifuna Villages of Triunfo de la Cruz and La Ensenada to experience this fascinating culture.

*5:00 pm We head back to La Ceiba.
