

Trujillo es un Puerto Histórico

Trujillo is an enchanting Historical Port located 2 ½ hrs from La Ceiba boasts of one of the best looking bays within Honduras.

What makes Trujillo historical and quite unique is that it was on the 14th of August of 1502 that the first Catholic Mass was held and it was the first time that after discovering islands they set foot on the mainland. Trujillo was one of the first capitals in the New World and due to the visits of English pirates and corsairs, the Spanish Crown built the Santa Barbara Fortress to protect their holdings and it still stands today.

Archeologists have found Pre-columbian monticules in the area that today is a delightful bay with white sandy pristine beaches.

Arqueólogos han encontrado montículos Pre-Colombinos en el área que en tiempo presente tiene las playas de arena blanca bañada por el Mar Caribe.
